

Antipoverty FORUM

for front line workers

February 24, 2011
9 a.m. to 4 p.m.
Carnegie Building,
Laurier Campus,
73 George St, Brantford

The purpose of this forum is to equip front line workers with tools and knowledge to assist and support their clients out of poverty or at least, survive within it.

Hosted by:

Grand River
Community
Health Centre

Community
Legal Clinic

Sexual Assault
Centre of Brant

Agenda:

- Opening
- Key Note Speaker:
Pat Capponi, author,
committee member 25 in 5,
and appointed to the Social Assistance Review Advisory Council, recipient of the Order of Ontario.
- Break out sessions
- Lunch
- Community Collaboration
- Closing Speaker:
Heather Vanner, ED,
Community Resource
Service

Booking Sessions:

Please choose one option to attend in each session.

Session A:

- Healing Mind and Body
- Housing
- Income/Food Security
- Creative Arts & Recreation

Session B:

- Healing Mind and Body
- Housing
- Income/Food Security
- Creative Arts & Recreation

Name: _____

Agency: _____

E-mail: _____

*Parking available on the street and at Darling and Market in the parking lot.
Break out sessions hosted by community agencies.*

Register by phone at 519.751.1164 or email: carrie@sacbrant.ca or fax 519.751.4187. Registration fee is $10 (includes lunch) and can be paid at the door with cash or cheque. The deadline for registration is February 17.